

Proof:

Given n is a integer, by the Division Theorem, every natural number is one of the forms $4n$, $4n+1$, $4n+2$, $4n+3$

Since $4n$ is divisible by 2, $4n$ is even.

So $4n + 1$ and $4n + 3$ must be odd.

The argument have been proved.